

Slew of new deals at SatNav!

Forays into international markets, seeking partnerships

27th July 2013: SatNav today announced several new customers and partnerships for its range of products that are gaining rapid traction in various vertical markets the company addresses. The strategic partnerships further deepen access to additional sales channels and geographies. Company is also in talks with leading organizations for Go-To-Market alliances for business growth. The new projects herald its foray into international markets that offer immense potential in coming years.