

New Deals at SatNav

Health & Insurance Major to use a-mantra for their BPO operations

One of the leading Health & Insurance majors of the US will implement a-mantra for their India & Philippines operations to have better planning, utilization & optimization of their capacities. SatNav is providing a SaaS model, including a product specialist placed onsite to help the customer reap maximum benefits and greater ROI. As it happens with most of our customers, the Group CEO's office is spearheading the project.

Global Telecommunication Equipment & Services Giant to implement a-mantra

A Global Telecommunication Equipment & Services Giant to implement a-mantra Space Management for its India operation centers. a-mantra will help them to achieve better space utilization and charge back from the project teams for driving internal efficiency. This is one of the major visibility projects within the customer's organization and a very prestigious one for SatNav as well.

FMCG Fortune 100 company's India arm expands usage of SatTracx

A Fortune 100 FMCG company uses SatTracx's complete solution for their store outlets location analysis, planning salesperson routes, goods delivery route considering various business parameters and for an effective analysis of the entire operations. The customer has seen enough tremendous value in the Product and is actively expanding services to other countries as they see business benefits accruing on a daily basis.