

SatNav joining hands with IT majors

SatNav is working with a couple of leading Indian IT services majors in providing Map based solutions for their customers on their product platforms. Such an alliance helps those companies concentrate on their existing service offerings and the map based content is served by SatNav's API tools. Both partners are seeking long term partnerships in working together on synergistic opportunities worldwide and joint bids have already been initiated in some regions.